NELSON MANDELA — FREEDOM AT 70 CAMPAIGN

To mark the 70th birthday of Nelson Mandela the Anti-Apartheid Movement has organised a special campaign: 'Nelson Mandela — Freedom at 70'. This campaign is calling for the release of Nelson Mandela and all prisoners of apartheid, be they in South Africa or occupied Namibia.

The first highlight of the campaign is the 'Tribute to Nelson Mandela' concert at Wembley Stadium; on June 12th the Nelson Mandela Freedom March will start from Glasgow, culminating 600 miles later in a mass rally in London's Hyde Park on July 17th; and on July 18th, Nelson Mandela's 70th birthday, one million people will be wearing the 'Free Nelson Mandela' Birthday Badge.

A range of merchandise has been specially produced for this vital campaign. The designs have been chosen to convey the message of the campaign in an attractive yet simple way.

This summer thousands of people will be wearing the 'Freedom at 70' T-shirt and cap. The mug will be a constant reminder of the fortitude of Nelson Mandela and all prisoners of apartheid. And on Nelson Mandela's 70th birthday, a million people will be wearing the 'Free Nelson Mandela' Birthday Badge. It is in these and other ways that millions of people will be joining together to say: "Free Nelson Mandela and all prisoners of apartheid now!"
