Campaign

"I urge everyone of goodwill in Britain and the world over to give their support to this campaign so that it can achieve its objective in securing the release of Mandela and all political prisoners on his 70th birthday . . . If we are to avert a disaster in our country, then the doors of apartheid's goals must be unlocked and the prisoners freed."

Winnie Mandela, April 1988, giving a message to the launch of the Nelson Mandela: FREEDOM AT 70 CAMPAIGN.

Nelson Mandela will be 70 on July 18th 1988. He will have spent over 25 years in an apartheid prison, alongside his co-accused.

The women of South Africa and Namibia face a triple oppression of race, sex and class. They are at the forefront of the struggle against apartheid and injustice, and as such are an inspiration to women all over the world. We can do no less than support their struggle, which is OUR struggle: WOMEN march with us. Meet: entrance to Finsbury Park at Manor House tube.
